ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 512 (b) and in order to more timely resolve small claims disputes, all small claims cases filed in the Mesa County Court will be set for mandatory mediation on the TRIAL date as it appears on your summons. You do not have to have your witnesses present on that date.

The small claims mediator will be available to mediate cases two days each week. If the parties are unable to resolve their dispute through mediation then their case will be set for a date and time certain before a county court judge or magistrate for TRIAL. There will be no charge to the parties for participating in mediation.
